A 5-YEAR SENTENCE

JAMES GAULDING FOUND GUILTY ON ONE COUNT.

BROTHER NOW ON TRIAL

Both Men Charged with Same Offense and Both Have Been in Trouble Before.

The jury in the case of the state against James Gaulding on a charge of burglary and larceny, returned a verdict at 9 o'clock Tuesday night, finding the defendant not guilty as to the burglary charge, but finding him guilty as to the larceny charge, and assessed his punishment at five years in the penitentiary. The case had been on trial in court since Monday morning.

The case of Wood Gaulding, a brother of James Gaulding, on the charge of burglary and larceny, was taken up Tuesday morning. He is charged with having taken part in the alleged offense that his brother was convicted of. The case was still being tried late Wednesday afternoon before a jury composed of George Johnson, William Hoshor, George McKnight, R. E. Snodgrass, Bert Bratcher, A. J. Campbell, Frank Martin, Felix Grundy, John Vert, George Bickett, E. A. Baker and John Airy.

The offense of which Gualding was convicted took place at Ravenwood last July, when a box car was broken into and a box of goods belonging to a St. Joseph wholesale house taken.

James Gaulding has been in trouble before and served a term of two years in the penitentiary, having been sent up from Nodaway county in 1903 for stealing a team from the hitchracks in Maryville. His younger brother, Joe Gaulding, was implicated with him, and he was given a reform school sentence.

Then James Gaulding got into trouble at Barnard. He was arrested and placed in jail here by George Evans, who was then sheriff, on a charge of burglary, larceny and arson. Henry Steele was arrested with Gaulding on the same charge. It was alleged that they stole horses, robbed a store and later burned the store building. On August 26, 1905, Steele broke jail and escaped, but was later caught by Sheriff Evans at Wayne, Neb., in just a year from the time that he broke jail. Steele pleaded guilty at the November term of circuit court here in 1906 and was sent up for nine years in the penitentiary, and is still there. The charge against Gaulding was nolle prossed by the prosecuting attorney at that time.

James Gaulding is about 30 years old. He married Miss Mae Steele, who once served a term in the reform school for stealing. It was charged against her that she and her brother, Ned Steele, assisted Mrs. Gentry, nee Steele, in robbing many of the homes at Graham. Mrs. Gaulding was an attendant at the court this week while the case of her husband was up.

FIRST TEAM WON.

Victorious Over a High School Team By a Score of 45 to 15.

On Friday the first team of the high school issued a challenge to any and all high school teams to be played in the high school gymnasium Tuesday evening. The challenge was accepted by a team of which Virgil Lyle is captain. An admission of 10 cents was charged, and it was hoped that the proceeds of the game would pay for the new jerseys which the team has purchased. Although the game was not a financial success, yet we have it on good authority that the two spectators enjoyed the game immensely and are glad they came. The game, although rough throughout, was hotly contested during every minute of play, and the 45 to 15 score is hardly an index to the character of game that was played. Captain Quinn was the principal point getter for the first team, while Wilson starred for the second team.

The line-up of the game:

First team—Staples, Strader, forwards; Quinn, center; Gray, Gibson, guards.

Second team—Willson, Ford, forwards; Lyle, center; Montgomery, David, guards.

Points made—Field goals, Willson 4, Ford 2, Staples 2, Strader 4, Quinn 13. Free throws, Lyle 3, Staples 5, Quinn.

JUST A MATTER OF A SHORT TIME

When Farmers Will Be Devoting More Time to Dairying, States R. Ambrose of Clyde.

The following is from the Daily Drovers' Telegram of Kansas City about a farmer living near Clyde:

R. W. Ambrose of Clyde, a prosperous farmer, thinks it is but a question of time when farmers will be devoting more attention to dairy matters. This, he states, will come about when they realize what there is in such an enterprise. "Very few farmers care to dabble with milk, and to milk cows," he said. "But I am here to say to you that it pays well. This winter my cream checks have been running around $40 a month, which was not bad to take. I had but ten cows, and not more than half of these were fresh. But the secret of this success was in the fact that I had silage for the cows, which is just out of sight ahead of any other kind of feed. These cows are just the common kinds, such as are to be found on any farm. Our family consists of six persons, and we use a great deal of milk and cream. It is my intention to erect another silo this year."

Mr. Dalgety at the Normal.

The students and faculty of the Normal were delightfully entertained at the chapel hour Wednesday morning by Mr. George S. Dalgety, who is at the head of the department of expression and public speaking of the Dakota Wesleyan college at Mitchell, S. D. Mr. Dalgety read "Dagby's Wedding" by Rudyard Kipling, and was obliged to respond to an encore.

D., who are making an extended visit with Mrs. Willis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell of near Arkoe, returned to the Campbell home Tuesday evening from a visit in Omaha with her sister, Mrs. Nora Stropp, and a brother, William Campbell.

No Danger.

Baron Gustave de Rothschild had a pleasant mixture of caution and waggery. Once while in the synagogue his neighbor suddenly plucked him by the sleeve and whispered hoarsely. "I have come away this morning without locking the safe!"

"Don't worry," replied Rothschild, looking around at the vast congregation, "we are all of us here!"—London Chronicle.

HIS WIFE'S MESSAGE

SPARKLING COMEDY TO BE GIVEN AT THE NORMAL.

LOCAL TALENT TAKE PART

Prof. Dalgety is Assisting in Shaping Up the Play—Normal Quartet to Furnish the Music.

The sparkling play, "His Wife's Message," will be given at the Normal next Monday evening, March 11. The play has been in preparation for some weeks, and the cast is now in splendid shape to put on the comedy. The stage has been arranged to furnish a splendid interior and draw curtains will be used in lieu of the roll curtain which will later be installed. Practice has shown that the school auditorium will make an ideal place for such a production, where no shifting of scenes is required.

The cast is composed wholly of local people, and unusual interest is being manifested in their work. The leading female role is taken by Miss Alice Martin, who is supported by Miss Emma Lee Taylor in the ingenue part. Mrs. V. I. Moore plays opposite her husband as Mrs. Frank Fuller, while the character role, taken by Miss Gladys Yeaman, is one of the hits of the piece.

The male parts are taken by Prof. H. P. Swinehart, Prof. V. I. Moore, Harry Mutz, Phillip Parcher and Fred Lewis. The two latter in character parts are doing splendid work, and will furnish the comedy.

Considerable assistance is being given in the final shaping up of the play by Prof. Dalgety of Mitchell, S. D., who is visiting Prof. V. I. Moore. Prof. Dalgety had charge of the production on a former occasion and played the leading role, so that his experience and practical knowledge of stage craft will be of invaluable assistance. He has been for the past three summer playing with the Vaughan Claser Stock company of Rochester, Buffalo and Detroit.

The music for the occasion will be furnished by the Normal Quartet, for whose benefit, along with the Athletic association, the play will be produced.

M. I. Circle Meeting.

The M. I. Circle held its meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Mutz. Owing to the unavoidable absence of two members on the program, Mrs. Clinton Davis and Mrs. J. W. Ray, their parts were continued to another meeting. There were eighteen members present. The devotional service was led by Mrs. F. M. Martin, when the president, Mrs. W. A. Bailey, took charge of the afternoon study. A delinquent paper on "The Chemistry of Man" read by Mrs. W. O. Garrett, was thoroughly instructive. A drill on authors was conducted by Mrs. A. C. Hopkins. Mrs. W. B. Christie was critic.

Entertained Friends.

W. B. Bloomfield and family entertained a number of their friends in honor of Mrs. J. H. Holeman and daughter, Gladys, and son, Alvin, before their departure to their new home in Ansley, Neb. A two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. Bloomfield and daughters, Hazel and Nora, consisting of oysters, pickles, cake and fruit. The evening was spent in playing games until a late hour, after which the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Holeman and daughter and son a safe journey home.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Simmons and niece, Helen Claycomb; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Heflin and daughter and son, and Miss Cynthia New.

Talked of "Art in Dress."

The Twentieth Century club held its general monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Elks club rooms. After a short business session, in which a number of committees reported and a nominating committee was appointed, the subject for the afternoon, "Art in Dress," was taken up.

Miss Helen Leffler's talk on "Fads" was based on the conclusions of that familiar author Charlotte Perkins Gillman, which made it doubly interesting. Among other points she made clear the fact that what might be termed reforms had been brought about by what originally were fads.

Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend read in her usual pleasing manner a paper on "Ideals in Dress," describing some half dozen costumes with their accessories, and making in a measure what would be regarded as a standard of perfection in dress.

A very lengthy and spirited debate, "Resolved, that harem skirts, long hat pins, paint, powder and other fads are justifiable in the development of a beautiful woman," was entered into with much excitement and concern. Affirmative, Mrs. Scribner Beech, Sr., and Mrs. G. B. Holmes; negative, Miss Jessie Parcher and Mrs. G. H. Colbert. Both sides produced some very clever and convincing arguments, based on well grounded facts, with numerous quotations and illustrations, carrying it from the sublime to the ridiculous. An effective climax was reached when the leader of the affirmative (seated beside her opponent in very close quarters) arose to give her three-minute rebuttal and left the mark of the weapon which she had so earnestly, so heroically, so eloquently defended, on the face of her honorable opponent. The judges, selected by the year-book committee, were Mrs. Charles T. Bell, Mrs. M. A. Peery and Mrs. F. W. Crow. After much deliberation they rendered an unanimous decision in favor of the negative.

The anniversary of the club will be celebrated with a luncheon for the associate and club members March 18.

To Move to Stanberry.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grant, who have been residents of this city for several years, will leave Maryville Wednesday night for their new home in Stanberry, where they will reside. Mr. Grant recently sold his residence property in Maryville. Before leaving, Mr. Grant was presented at the Elks club a gold headed cane by the members of that club.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Kelley and children returned to their home in Arkoe Tuesday evening, after a several days' visit in Maryville with Mr. Kelley's father, Glover Kelley, and family, while attending to court matters.

Thought, However, That a Continuance Will Be Asked For—Court Sent Back 4 Collector Books.

The county court will take up Thursday afternoon the motion of R. W. Hull, G. J. Moore and W. W. Glass, asking the court to rescind the order and revoke the license as issued to John Kane for a dramshop. It is not known whether both sides will be ready at this time, and it is thought that a continuation will be asked.

The court in session Wednesday morning sent back four township collector's books. They were Hughes, Green, Union and Independence townships. The court says that the reason that they did so was that the personal tax in these townships had not been collected close enough.

PRAYER TO THE KANSAS CITY STAR

T. R.! T. R.! T. R.! T. R.!

Whatever page we look upon,
The same is there to make us yawn,
Or cause our nerves to grow unsteady,
That everlasting Teddy! Teddy!

For God's sake, Nelson, lest us rest
From this pestiferous, pesky pest,
And cease our addled brains to pelt
Eternally with Roosevelt.

Devote at least one page to ads,
Or sporting news or fashion's fads,
So our tired eyes may look it o'er
Without encountering Theodore.

Have mercy on our tortured souls,
Omit your manufactured polls;
And, William, don't be so intent
On telling us what Teddy meant.

And now, Old Baron Bill, once more,
Your tender mercy we implore,
To give us something else than Ted
To cool our fever-throbbing head.

O Blessed Bill, please do your best,
And try just once to give us rest,
For just one issue, if no more,
From T. R., Ted and Theodore;

And all his names, both real and pet,
Let us forget, let us forget.
Pray grant this boon for which we pine,
And all the glory shall be thine.
Amen!

Obituary of Mr. Gillam.

H. H. Gillam was born July 10, 1836, and died February 27, 1912, leaving to mourn his loss six children—S. G. Gillam of this city, Mrs. J. W. Wynkoop of Bolckow, Mrs. Edward Tebow, west of Maryville; Wm. T. Gillam, Philbrook, Mont; Mrs. Henry Pierpoint of Maryville, and Mrs. G. L. Bonewitz, living east of Maryville.

Mr. Gillam's death was a great shock to the neighborhood, as a week before he was seemingly in the best of health and spirits. We mourn his loss, as his place is hard to fill, as he was always of a cheerful disposition, a friend to all and a shining light in his Christian life, giving strength and comfort to all who came in contact with him. In his earlier days he devoted himself to the ministry, being ordained as a minister in the United Brethren and Methodist churches, and in later years he had been a devoted member of the Christian church of this city. He enjoyed life to the utternost, but had no fear of death, and many times expressed himself waiting for the Lord to call him home.

His wife, Amelia L. Gillam, departed this life April 5, 1911, after a long illness of a complication of diseases. She also became a member of the Christian church at an early age, and remained a faithful member until her death. She was a loving mother, always patient and trusting in the Lord to help her in her suffering, being an invalid the greater portion of her life. She realized she was soon to be called home, and just before the messenger came she sang in her trembling voice, "I'm Going Home," and said: "Jesus can make the dying bed as soft as downy pillows."

We sympathize with the children left to mourn the loss of mother, and now father in less than a year's time, but you have this comfort: Father and mother are together in the great beyond, watching and waiting for you, and you can always remember their blessed Christian example set before you while they were here on earth with you, but we know their loss can never be filled. SWELL COLORED FUNCTION.

The Wedding of Miss Addie Arnold and Mr. John McGehee at African M. E. Church.

The marriage of Miss Addie Arnold and Mr. John McGehee was solemnized Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the African M. E. church, in the presence of quite a company of both white and colored friends of the bride and groom. Everything pertaining to the wedding, and the serving of the banquet that followed, was carried out in the most approved and appropriate manner.

The strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, executed by Miss Esther Shoemaker, announced the coming of the bridau party, who marched down the main aisle of the church to the altar, where they were met by the officiating minister, Rev. J. R. Carter, pastor of the church, where the bride and groom are faithful attendants. The beautiful ritual marriage service of the M. E. church was very impressively read by the minister, the responses being clearly made by the contracting parties. After the benediction hearty congratulations were extended to the happy couple, who were attended by Mrs. Mattie Boggess and Mr. James Malcolm.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding gown of white marquisette over white messaline, with a narrow banding of rose colored satin messaline around the bottom of the skirt, and the yoke of the waist was of the same color and material. A bandeua of oid-rose messaline made a becoming head dress. She carried a large bouquet of deep pink sweet peas and ferns, and also wore long white kid gloves.

The bridesmaid wore a white corduroy skirt with a white lace waist and brilliant hair ornaments.

The bridegroom and his best man wore the conventional black broadcloth.

After congratulations an elegant wedding luncheon was served in the chuch to the guests.

The bride's table, where were seated the bride and groom, the bridesmaid and best man and the officiating minister and his wife, was beautifully decorated. A bouquet of pink and pink and white carnations and ferns were placed in the center of the table over a centerpiece of hand-embroidery and lace, and pink and white hearts were also used in the decoration. The bride's caks was from the Reuillard cafe, and was a beautiful work in the confectioner's art, all in pink and white. Those serving were Mrs. Henrietta Andrews, Miss Savannah Smith of Kansas City, Miss Ethel Page, Miss Dora Fields, Mrs. John Redmond, Mrs. Henry Wilson and Miss Clara Page.

Several attractive gowns were worn by the guests. Mrs. Andrews wore a pale blue chiffon over messaline with trimmings of brown fur. Miss Savannah Smith wore an Alice blue chiffon trimmed with gold fringe over yellow messaline, heavily embroidered in gold beads an dtrimmed with black fur. Mrs. Henry Wilson wore a white embroidered lingerie, with a Madam Sherry cap of white net over pink silk. Misses Ethel Page and Dora Fields wore pretty white lingerie dresses; Mrs. John Redmond wore white net over blue silk messaline; Miss Alice Wright, Alice blue marquisette over pink silk; Mrs. Alfred Allen, tan voille with brown trimmings; Mrs. Mary Smith, Alice blue linen embroidered white roses; Mrs. J. R. Carter, suit of white serge; Miss Clara Page, all black hand-embroidered silk gown.

Mr. and Mrs. McGehee left on the 10:52 Wabash train for a few days' wedding trip to Des Moines, the bride wearing a traveling suit of blue serge. They were showered and showered with rice as they left the church, and the cab was adorned with pink and white hearts and white ribbons, so that their going was heralded all along the way to the depot. The bridegroom is the well known porter at the Linville hotel. His bride has been a faithful and efficient servant in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Leet for the past six years, and it is to them she owes the nice wedding celebration. She will continue her service in the Leet home after the honeymoon trip.

They received many gifts of cut glass, china and silver, which were tastefully arranged for the inspection of the guests on a table in the church. As the bride left the church she threw her bouquet, but unfortunately no one caught it, as it fell on the table where her gifts were.

The ceremony was witnessed by Mr and Mrs. H. F. Leet and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Leet, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Shoemaker, Miss Esther Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Gann, Misses Mary and Lillian Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bainum, Miss Maud Bainum, Mr. Will Phares, Mr. W. C. Pierce, Miss Babe Ford, Misses Lenore and Rose Schumacher, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Orear.

The other wedding guests were: Mrs. Harry Bolin, Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Martin, Mr. Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Carter, Rev. and and Mrs. Aaron Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John Gooden, Mr. and Mrs. John Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Will Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson, Mrs. Clara Page, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Page, Mr. and Mrs. John Redman, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Mattie Booggess, Mr. Charles Martin, Miss Isabel Palmer, Miss Dora Fields, Mr. James Malcome, Mr. and of aKnsas City, Mrs. Oda Johnson, Mr. Mrs. B. Hardin, Miss Savannah Smith and Mrs. Matthew Kelley, Mr. Tom Jackson, Mr. Dan Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Dunk Ghan, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen, Mrs. Tillman, Miss Stella Smith, Mrs. Henrietta Andrews, Mrs. Alf Dale, Mr. A. Keen, Miss Hazel Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Vance.

FRANCE INTO MEXICAN FUSS?

Orders Armored Cruiser Descartes to Vera Cruz.

ACT FOLLOWS NOTE TO POWERS

Foreign Intervention Recalls Threat to Massacre Americans—Official Washington Agitated Over New Phase of Situation.

Washington, Mar. 6.—Aroused by the admission by President Taft that the United States is not able to protect its own citizens or the citizens of other countries in Mexico, France announced that she is making ready to send the armored cruiser Descartes to Vera Cruz.

Action by France followed within three days after the state department had notified the ambassadors of Great Britaint, Germany and France and the minister of Spain that the president had advised all Americans to flee from Mexico.

Ends Monroe Doctrine?

Unless America changes her course without delay it was pointed out by diplomats in Washington that the action by France marks the beginning of the end of the Monroe doctrine as a force respected by the nations of the world.

In recognition of this appalling and humiliating fact leaders of the house announced that they will hold a conference and decide upon a course of action on this most delicate situation.

Spurred into activity by the revelation from Mexico and the action by France the senate committee on foreign relations will also hold a long and serious session at which the threat of European intervention will be vigorously discussed.

Fuel is added to the already fierce flame by the incendiary threat of Manuel Calero, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, that all Americans and other foreigners will be held as hostages the moment a pacifying force of foreign soldiers puts foot on the "sacred soil of Mexico."

As Tillman Sees It.

The subdued temper of official Washington was expressed by Senator Tillman when he said:

"The situation is one for the United States and Mexico alone. Should European nations attempt to intervene that fact will be cause for the immediate and vigorous assertion of the Monroe doctrine.

"Should a massacre of Americans threaten, I believe that the patriotism of President Taft will direct him to send and army into Mexico."

The alarm of the department of state was accentuated by the fact that search as it will, it is unable to find a single trace of the 50 American citizens including Eugene C. Blalock, a wealthy mine owner, who are missing at Azarco.

Great fear is felt this entire party who were last seen in a neighborhood infested with bandits and irresponsible insurrectionists, have been massacred.

The situation of complete anarchy that exists throughout Mexico is further illustrated by the alarming fact that thousands of Americans, taking the state department at its word, are fleeing, not only from the wildest country districts but from the cities of Mexico as well.

A general exodus of American women and children is in progress from Mexico City itself.

TAXICAB MURDERERS TO PRISON

Four Are Sentenced for Killing of Chicago Woman While on Her Way Home.

Chicago, Mar. 6.—Life imprisonment for George Rabanau and 25 years in the penitentiary for John Stacey and William H. Channel, found guilty of the murder last December of Mrs. Edmund Kaufman, was the verdict of the jury.

Fred Bensham, the fourth man charged with the crime, pleaded guilty before the trial and will be sentenced by the court.

All the defendants made more or less complete confessions of their share in the wild ride in a stolen motor car, which culminated in the attempts at robbery and the killing of Mrs. Kaufman, who was nearing her home with her husband when they were attacked.

CLAIRVOYANT GOT EASY MONEY

Salina Contractor Recovered His $600 and Fakir Was Captured While Boarding Train to Leave.

Salina, Kan., Mar. 6.—V. W. Alderson, a contractor of this city, at the suggestion of a clairvoyant put six $100 bills in an envelope and hung it around his neck, when he visited the fortune teller. After receiving a reading Alderson went home and found that the money was gone. The clairvoyant, who gave his name as Prof. Almo, was arrested while boarding a train a few minutes later. The money was recovered.

City Hall Bonds Won.

Lamonte, Mo., Mar. 6.—At a special election held here a proposition to issue bonds for $5,000 for building a city hall was carried by a vote of 126 to 24.

NO REASON FOR ARREST OF WOMEN

Lawrence, Mass., Police Head Admits Babies Also Were in Jail.

DIDN'T KNOW WHAT THE LAW WAS

Investigation by House Committee Brings Out Testimony of Cruelty and Arrests Without Apparent Authority.

Washington, Mar. 6.—C. F. Lynch, commissioner of public safety at Lawrence, Mass., who has charge of the police department there, told the house rules committee which is hearing testimony on conditions in the mill strike in that city, that he did not know by what authority of law women with babies in arms had been taken to the police station after the riot at the depot.

Max Bogaty of Philadelphia, a witness yesterday, recalled said he had seen babies, little boys and girls, in cells, locked up. Women arrested in the riot, he said, had been fined $1 for blocking the sidewalks.

Under questioning by Representative Stanley, Lynch said none of the parents of the children had appealed to him against their children being taken away, but he understood from one of the police captains that all of the children did not have permission to leave.

Mothers and Babes Held.

"Did you see in the jail, after the struggle at the depot, women and children and women with babies in arms?" Representative Stanley asked.

"Yes, I saw them there, but they were not in jail."

"How were they restrained? Weren't they free to go if they wanted to?"

"They were brought there to be held until their cases had been disposed of."

"They were brought there by the police then, and did you ask any of these mothers whether they were incarcerated because they had tried to keep their children from being kidnaped or because they tried to send them away?"

"No, I did not."

"By what warrant were those mothers and children there?"

"I didn't know what the law was on that subject."

Didn't Know They Were Mothers.

"Well, then, just why were they arrested?"

"I don't think they were, and I didn't know at the station whether they were mothers or not."

Josephine Liss, a striker, testified that when she went out for a walk a soldier stopped her with a bayonet and swore at her. Then she struck him with her muff and was arrested for assault, locked up and fined $10. She testified she had seen a woman struck on the head by a policeman with a club, and had seen men beaten until their heads were covered with blood.

Four Day Tour Through Southern Kansas Arouses Much Interest Among Farmers.

Council Grove, Kan., Mar. 6.—Through a snowbound country, the agricultural college M. K. & T. drainage and good roads special train started on a four-day tour of southern Kansas. The train left Junction City at 9 o'clock. At the first stop, White City, a little town of 700, 75 farmers had driven through the snow filled roads to meet the train. Parkerville, a smaller town, gave even a larger crowd.

In charge of the train is J. H. Miller, director of college extension at the agricultural college. Speakers from the agricultural college are W. S. Gearhart, state highway engineer; H. B. Walker, drainage engineer, and A. R. Losch, assistant highway engineer.

At a meeting in a hall at Burlington Mr. Gearhart gave his bridge and roads talk, illustrated. The special spent the night at Burlington.

SENT HIS BOOK INTO MISSOURI

This Proved the Undoing of Otoman Zar-Adusht Hanish, High Priest of the Sun Cult.

Chicago, Ill., Mar. 6.—Otoman Zar-Adusht Hanish, high priest of the sun cult, was arrested by federal officers following a raid on his temple here. He was found hiding in the coal bin. He spent the night in the county jail after failing to furnish bonds of $25,000. The charge against him is the sending of objectionable reading matter by express. It is punishable by a heavy fine and a penitentiary term.

The federal authorities have tried hard to catch Hanish sending his book through the mails, but he never used them. Finally he stumbled recently and sent a copy to a government operative stationed temporarily at Brookfield, Mo. The book was sent by express.

MISSING DOCTOR FOUND IN FIELD

Eating Corn From Shock and Wholly Without Shelter.

WANDERED FOUR DAYS IN SNOW

At First Refused to Admit His Identity or Recognize Friends—Family Believe Health and Strength Will Return.

Trenton, Mo., Mar. 6.—The mysterious disappearance of Dr. G. W. Belshe ended when he was found in the middle of a cornfield eating grain out of a shock. Wandering four days in the snow without adequate food and shelter has weakened his mind, if it was not already tottering when he deserted his buggy on the way to a patient last Friday night.

"Hello, where are we?" was his greeting to his uncle, Claude Belshe, and Sheriff Dillon as they approached him in a field six miles north of here.

He hid the ear of corn among the stocks, but munched on hungrily. For several hours he refused to admit his identity or to recognize his friends.

Hands and Feet Swollen.

From his first incoherent utterances he is becoming more composed in mind each hour. Dr. J. F. Fair and his family believe he will be restored to strength. The long night rides which were his custom in the service of others had given him great endurance. His hands and feet are swollen from the cold.

But the incidents leading up to his disappearance probably will remain a mystery. In the little conversation that he could carry on in a rational manner, Dr. Belshe said he knew almost nothing of what happened during his long exposure, but that he remembered getting a drink and being very hungry.

Only once did a member of the family inquire the reason for his running away. He looked at his wife.

"Tell them the truth," he muttered.

Mrs. Belshe, who has been on the verge of nervous collapse, has been strengthened by his return. She feared that he had been murdered or kidnaped on the way to his country patient. The inquest at which he was to have been an important witness will be postponed until his recovery.

Discovered by Farmer.

The morning after his disappearance was one of the severest snowstorms of the winter.

Marion Legg, a farmer, saw Belshe approach his barn, go to the well and get a drink. Believing him a tramp or a sneakthief, Legg sent him away. Early in the morning he found him near a haystack in his field and as he fled before him Legg noticed that he seemed to be weak and walked peculiarly. He telephoned Sheriff Dillon, who notified Claude Belshe. The latter with others jumped in a buggy and rushed to the farm. With a searching party made up of neighbors, they soon tracked the wanderer from the haystack to the cornfield.

WEDDING ENDS IN DAMAGE SUIT

Baptist Preacher Sued by Father of Eloping Girl for Performing Ceremony.

Montgomery, Mo., Mar. 6.—A novel suit has been filed in the circuit court here, in which Benjamin Windsor, a farmer, sues Samuel Palmer, a young Baptist preacher of this county, for $2,000 damages for performing a wedding ceremony in which his daughter, Frances Windsor, 15 years old, was married to William Boone, 19.

The father alleges that Mr. Palmer knew that his daughter was under age, that the marriage ceremony was against his wishes and that the preacher wilfully and maliciously performed the ceremony.

Rev. Palmer asserts that the young bride and her husband came to his home and brought what he believed a legal and duly authorized license to wed, issued at Jefferson City by the recorder. The girl told him she was "over 18."

To Build Concrete Houses.

Gary, Ind., Mar. 6.—Work will be started within a short time on 100 more houses for the American Sheet and Tin Plate company. Since the operation of the plant fully 2,000 men have been employed and have already occupied the first 100 houses. These houses are built by the poured cement method and are of the Edison type.

Cleared a Road for a Funeral.

St. Joseph, Mar. 6.—Neighbors of J. M. Holt, a farmer five miles east of Quitman, Mo., cleared a road from Holt's home to Quitman, that the body of Mrs. Holt may be taken there for burial. She became ill February 25 and on account of the deep snow a physician could not reach the house until three days later.

Five of a Family Burned.

Beaver, Pa., Mar. 6.—Five persons were burned to death when a boarding house at Koppel, near here, was destroyed by fire. The dead include the landlord, his wife and their three children. Two other children were saved by boarders who threw them from the second story into the arms of persons in the street.

LADY DECIES.

Lady Decies, formerly Vivien Gould, has arrived at Georgian court, Lakewood, N. J., to be with her mother, because the stork, which is on its way, prefers to nest in the old home chimney of those he visits.

HARD LABOR FOR SUFFRAGISTS

LONDON MAGISTRATES ADD TO USUAL PRISON SENTENCE.

Attacks on Private Property Causes Public Sentiment to Turn Against Women.

London, Mar. 6.—For the first time the public became fully aroused over the malicious destruction of property by suffragettes. After the conviction of several of the leaders in the recent riots, crowds followed the prisoners back to the jail crying, "Horsewhip them!"

The magistrate had 150 cases against the suffragettes to deal with. 87 of them arising from the serious riots of last Friday, when the accused caused damage of $25,000, and the others in connection with the later disturbance.

Alice Wright, described as an American residing in Paris, was sentenced by the magistrate sitting at the West London police court to two months' imprisonment at hard labor on a charge of window smashing.

All the other women who engaged in the raid in the West End of London received similar sentences.

The addition of hard labor to the term of imprisonment is a departure on the part of the magistrates and has caused dismay among the women.

Since the women suffragettes have begun reckless campaign public sentiment has begun to turn strongly against them. In addition to more severe prison sentence shop owners and others have undertaken a campaign in opposition to universal suffrage. The anti-suffragettes declare that the women have ruined their cause by their actions in the past week.

MORE LIBERTY FOR METHODISTS

Movement Inaugurated to Remove the Ban of the Church From Theaters.

Cincinnati, Mar. 6.—A movement to remove the ban of the Methodist Episcopal general conference from theater-going was inaugurated by the Rev. W. E. Martin at a meeting of the Methodist Ministers' association here and received the indorsement of a majority of those present. The present attitude of the Methodist church, embodied in the discipline, which says that for the third offense of theater-going the offender should be put on ecclesiastical trial, was declared not only unjust and foolish, but laughable, said Mr. Martin. When he had finished some of the best known ministers heartily commended his stand and urged that the paper be sent to the amusement committee of the general conference to be held at Minneapolis in May.

LANDSLIDE ENDANGERED TRAINS

Track Foreman Discovered Accident Just in Time to Save Rock Island Passengers.

St. Albans, Mo., Mar. 6.—Walter Bodaw, track foreman here of the Rock Island railroad, by quick action, saved night trains on that road from being wrecked at St. Albans. Bodaw, about 5 o'clock, discovered that a great mass of stone and dirt had fallen on the tracks from the bluffs on either side. There was no telephone near and trains from Kansas City and the West would be due shortly.

Bodaw rode three miles on a hand car to reach a telephone and warned agents to stop the trains. They were halted at a safe distance. Section hands were put to work clearing the track, but the debris was not cleared away until early morning.

Sunday Acting Not Labor.

Galena, Kan., Mar. 6.—Sunday acting is not a violation of the Sunday labor law, according to a decision of Judge E. E. Sapp in the case against Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hutchinson, who were arrested for giving a show in Scammon February 11. The defendants were discharged.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Maryville People Know How to Save It.

Many Maryville people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has cured thousands of kidney sufferers.

The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

Mrs. W. M. Newsan, Chestnut street, Savannah, Mo., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been of more benefit to me than any other kidney remedy I have ever used, and in view of this fact I willingly recommend them. I was caused much suffering from pains in my shoulders, and mornings on arising I felt tired and languid. I was also bothered by difficulty with the kidney secretions. Hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly spoken of, I got a box and soon after beginning their use, I was relieved. Another member of my family has also taken this remedy with satisfactory results."

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

Who does not know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark soft and glossy and in good condition As a matter of fact, Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than Sage and Sulphur, if properly prepared.

The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, use it according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

A 5-YEAR SENTENCE

JAMES GAULDING FOUND GUILTY ON ONE COUNT.

BROTHER NOW ON TRIAL

Both Men Charged with Same Offense and Both Have Been in Trouble Before.

The jury in the case of the state against James Gaulding on a charge of burglary and larceny, returned a verdict at 9 o'clock Tuesday night, finding the defendant not guilty as to the burglary charge, but finding him guilty as to the larceny charge, and assessed his punishment at five years in the penitentiary. The case had been on trial in court since Monday morning.

The case of Wood Gaulding, a brother of James Gaulding, on the charge of burglary and larceny, was taken up Tuesday morning. He is charged with having taken part in the alleged offense that his brother was convicted of. The case was still being tried late Wednesday afternoon before a jury composed of George Johnson, William Hoshor, George McKnight, R. E. Snodgrass, Bert Bratcher, A. J. Campbell, Frank Martin, Felix Grundy, John Vert, George Bickett, E. A. Baker and John Airy.

The offense of which Gualding was convicted took place at Ravenwood last July, when a box car was broken into and a box of goods belonging to a St. Joseph wholesale house taken.

James Gaulding has been in trouble before and served a term of two years in the penitentiary, having been sent up from Nodaway county in 1903 for stealing a team from the hitchracks in Maryville. His younger brother, Joe Gaulding, was implicated with him, and he was given a reform school sentence.

Then James Gaulding got into trouble at Barnard. He was arrested and placed in jail here by George Evans, who was then sheriff, on a charge of burglary, larceny and arson. Henry Steele was arrested with Gaulding on the same charge. It was alleged that they stole horses, robbed a store and later burned the store building. On August 26, 1905, Steele broke jail and escaped, but was later caught by Sheriff Evans at Wayne, Neb., in just a year from the time that he broke jail. Steele pleaded guilty at the November term of circuit court here in 1906 and was sent up for nine years in the penitentiary, and is still there. The charge against Gaulding was nolle prossed by the prosecuting attorney at that time.

James Gaulding is about 30 years old. He married Miss Mae Steele, who once served a term in the reform school for stealing. It was charged against her that she and her brother, Ned Steele, assisted Mrs. Gentry, nee Steele, in robbing many of the homes at Graham. Mrs. Gaulding was an attendant at the court this week while the case of her husband was up.

FIRST TEAM WON.

Victorious Over a High School Team By a Score of 45 to 15.

On Friday the first team of the high school issued a challenge to any and all high school teams to be played in the high school gymnasium Tuesday evening. The challenge was accepted by a team of which Virgil Lyle is captain. An admission of 10 cents was charged, and it was hoped that the proceeds of the game would pay for the new jerseys which the team has purchased. Although the game was not a financial success, yet we have it on good authority that the two spectators enjoyed the game immensely and are glad they came. The game, although rough throughout, was hotly contested during every minute of play, and the 45 to 15 score is hardly an index to the character of game that was played. Captain Quinn was the principal point getter for the first team, while Wilson starred for the second team.

The line-up of the game:

First team—Staples, Strader, forwards; Quinn, center; Gray, Gibson, guards.

Second team—Willson, Ford, forwards; Lyle, center; Montgomery, David, guards.

Points made—Field goals, Willson 4, Ford 2, Staples 2, Strader 4, Quinn 13. Free throws, Lyle 3, Staples 5, Quinn.

JUST A MATTER OF A SHORT TIME

When Farmers Will Be Devoting More Time to Dairying, States R. Ambrose of Clyde.

The following is from the Daily Drovers' Telegram of Kansas City about a farmer living near Clyde:

R. W. Ambrose of Clyde, a prosperous farmer, thinks it is but a question of time when farmers will be devoting more attention to dairy matters. This, he states, will come about when they realize what there is in such an enterprise. "Very few farmers care to dabble with milk, and to milk cows," he said. "But I am here to say to you that it pays well. This winter my cream checks have been running around $40 a month, which was not bad to take. I had but ten cows, and not more than half of these were fresh. But the secret of this success was in the fact that I had silage for the cows, which is just out of sight ahead of any other kind of feed. These cows are just the common kinds, such as are to be found on any farm. Our family consists of six persons, and we use a great deal of milk and cream. It is my intention to erect another silo this year."

Mr. Dalgety at the Normal.

The students and faculty of the Normal were delightfully entertained at the chapel hour Wednesday morning by Mr. George S. Dalgety, who is at the head of the department of expression and public speaking of the Dakota Wesleyan college at Mitchell, S. D. Mr. Dalgety read "Dagby's Wedding" by Rudyard Kipling, and was obliged to respond to an encore.

Visited in Omaha.

Mrs. F. D. Willis and her sons, Horace and Leland Willis, of Glenburn, N. D., who are making an extended visit with Mrs. Willis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell of near Arkoe, returned to the Campbell home Tuesday evening from a visit in Omaha with her sister, Mrs. Nora Stropp, and a brother, William Campbell.

To Leave Wednesday Night.

Wayland Wood of Knowlton, Mont., who has been visiting in Nodaway county for a few weeks, will leave Wednesday night for his home. Mr. Wood has a large ranch near Knowlton, and left Nodaway county twelve years ago.

Mrs. Henry Miller and Mrs. L. E. Sargent of Bolckow were guests in Maryville Tuesday of Mrs. W. E. Davis and daughter, Miss Eva Davis.

No Danger.

Baron Gustave de Rothschild had a pleasant mixture of caution and waggery. Once while in the synagogue his neighbor suddenly plucked him by the sleeve and whispered hoarsely: "I have come away this morning without locking the safe!"

"Don't worry," replied Rothschild, looking around at the vast congregation, "we are all of us here!"—London Chronicle.

HIS WIFE'S MESSAGE

SPARKLING COMEDY TO BE GIVEN AT THE NORMAL.

LOCAL TALENT TAKE PART

Prof. Dalgety is Assisting in Shaping Up the Play—Normal Quartet to Furnish the Music.

The sparkling play, "His Wife's Message," will be given at the Normal next Monday evening, March 11. The play has been in preparation for some weeks, and the cast is now in splendid shape to put on the comedy. The stage has been arranged to furnish a splendid interior and draw curtains will be used in lieu of the roll curtain which will later be installed. Practice has shown that the school auditorium will make an ideal place for such a production, where no shifting of scenes is required.

The cast is composed wholly of local people, and unusual interest is being manifested in their work. The leading female role is taken by Miss Alice Martin, who is supported by Miss Emma Lee Taylor in the ingenue part. Mrs. V. I. Moore plays opposite her husband as Mrs. Frank Fuller, while the character role, taken by Miss Gladys Yeaman, is one of the hits of the piece.

The male parts are taken by Prof. H. P. Swinehart, Prof. V. I. Moore, Harry Mutz, Phillip Parcher and Fred Lewis. The two latter in character parts are doing splendid work, and will furnish the comedy.

Considerable assistance is being given in the final shaping up of the play by Prof. Dalgety of Mitchell, S. D., who is visiting Prof. V. I. Moore. Prof. Dalgety had charge of the production on a former occasion and played the leading role, so that his experience and practical knowledge of stage craft will be of invaluable assistance. He has been for the past three summer playing with the Vaughan Claser Stock company of Rochester, Buffalo and Detroit.

The music for the occasion will be furnished by the Normal Quartet, for whose benefit, along with the Athletic association, the play will be produced.

M. I. Circle Meeting.

The M. I. Circle held its meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Mutz. Owing to the unavoidable absence of two members on the program, Mrs. Clinton Davis and Mrs. J. W. Ray, their parts were continued to another meeting. There were eighteen members present. The devotional service was led by Mrs. F. M. Martin, when the president, Mrs. W. A. Bailey, took charge of the afternoon study. A delinquent paper on "The Chemistry of Man" read by Mrs. W. O. Garrett, was thoroughly instructive. A drill on authors was conducted by Mrs. A. C. Hopkins. Mrs. W. B. Christie was critic.

Entertained Friends.

W. B. Bloomfield and family entertained a number of their friends in honor of Mrs. J. H. Holeman and daughter, Gladys, and son, Alvin, before their departure to their new home in Ansley, Neb. A two-course luncheon was served by Mrs. Bloomfield and daughters, Hazel and Nora, consisting of oysters, pickles, cake and fruit. The evening was spent in playing games until a late hour, after which the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Holeman and daughter and son a safe journey home.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Simmons and niece, Helen Claycomb; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Heflin and daughter and son, and Miss Cynthia New.

Talked of "Art in Dress."

The Twentieth Century club held its general monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Elks club rooms. After a short business session, in which a number of committees reported and a nominating committee was appointed, the subject for the afternoon, "Art in Dress," was taken up.

Miss Helen Leffler's talk on "Fads" was based on the conclusions of that familiar author Charlotte Perkins Gillman, which made it doubly interesting. Among other points she made clear the fact that what might be termed reforms had been brought about by what originally were fads.

Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend read in her usual pleasing manner a paper on "Ideals in Dress," describing some half dozen costumes with their accessories, and making in a measure what would be regarded as a standard of perfection in dress.

A very lengthy and spirited debate, "Resolved, that harem skirts, long hat pins, paint, powder and other fads are justifiable in the development of a beautiful woman," was entered into with much excitement and concern. Affirmative, Mrs. Scribner Beech, Sr., and Mrs. G. B. Holmes; negative, Miss Jessie Parcher and Mrs. G. H. Colbert. Both sides produced some very clever and convincing arguments, based on well grounded facts, with numerous quotations and illustrations, carrying it from the sublime to the ridiculous. An effective climax was reached when the leader of the affirmative (seated beside her opponent in very close quarters) arose to give her three-minute rebuttal and left the mark of the weapon which she had so earnestly, so heroically, so eloquently defended, on the face of her honorable opponent. The judges, selected by the year-book committee, were Mrs. Charles T. Bell, Mrs. M. A. Peery and Mrs. F. W. Crow. After much deliberation they rendered an unanimous decision in favor of the negative.

The anniversary of the club will be celebrated with a luncheon for the associate and club members March 18.

KANE CASE UP THURSDAY.

Thought, However, That a Continuance Will Be Asked For—Court Sent Back 4 Collector Books.

The county court will take up Thursday afternoon the motion of H. W. Hull, G. J. Moore and W. W. Glass, asking the court to rescind the order and revoke the license as issued to John Kane for a dramshop. It is not known whether both sides will be ready at this time, and it is thought that a continuation will be asked.

The court in session Wednesday morning sent back four township collector's books. They were Hughes, Green, Union and Independence townships. The court says that the reason that they did so was that the personal tax in these townships had not been collected close enough.

T. R.! T. R.! T. R.! T. R.!

Whatever page we look upon,
The same is there to make us yawn,
Or cause our nerves to grow unsteady,
That everlasting Teddy! Teddy!

For God's sake, Nelson, lest us rest
From this pestiferous, pesky pest,
And cease our addled brains to pelt
Eternally with Roosevelt.

Devote at least one page to ads,
Or sporting news or fashion's fads,
So our tired eyes may look it o'er
Without encountering Theodore.

Have mercy on our tortured souls,
Omit your manufactured polls;
And, William, don't be so intent
On telling us what Teddy meant.

And now, Old Baron Bill, once more,
Your tender mercy we implore,
To give us something else than Ted
To cool our fever-throbbing head.

O Blessed Bill, please do your best,
And try just once to give us rest,
For just one issue, if no more,
From T. R., Ted and Theodore;

And all his names, both real and pet,
Let us forget, let us forget.
Pray grant this boon for which we pine,
And all the glory shall be thine.
Amen!

Obituary of Mr. Gillam.

H. H. Gillam was born July 10, 1836, and died February 27, 1912, leaving to mourn his loss six children—S. G. Gillam of this city, Mrs. J. W. Wynkoop of Bolckow, Mrs. Edward Tebow, west of Maryville; Wm. T. Gillam, Philbrook, Mont; Mrs. Henry Pierpoint of Maryville, and Mrs. G. L. Bonewitz, living east of Maryville.

Mr. Gillam's death was a great shock to the neighborhood, as a week before he was seemingly in the best of health and spirits. We mourn his loss, as his place is hard to fill, as he was always of a cheerful disposition, a friend to all and a shining light in his Christian life, giving strength and comfort to all who came in contact with him. In his earlier days he devoted himself to the ministry, being ordained as a minister in the United Brethren and Methodist churches, and in later years he had been a devoted member of the Christian church of this city. He enjoyed life to the uttermost, but had no fear of death, and many times expressed himself waiting for the Lord to call him home.

His wife, Amelia L. Gillam, departed this life April 5, 1911, after a long illness of a complication of diseases. She also became a member of the Christian church at an early age, and remained a faithful member until her death. She was a loving mother, always patient and trusting in the Lord to help her in her suffering, being an invalid the greater portion of her life. She realized she was soon to be called home, and just before the messenger came she sang in her trembling voice, "I'm Going Home," and said: "Jesus can make the dying bed as soft as downy pillows."

We sympathize with the children left to mourn the loss of mother, and now father in less than a year's time, but you have this comfort: Father and mother are together in the great beyond, watching and waiting for you, and you can always remember their blessed Christian example set before you while they were here on earth with you, but we know their loss can never be filled. A FRIEND.

SWELL COLORED FUNCTION.

The Wedding of Miss Addie Arnold and Mr. John McGehee at African M. E. Church.

The marriage of Miss Addie Arnold and Mr. John McGehee was solemnized Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the African M. E. church, in the presence of quite a company of both white and colored friends of the bride and groom. Everything pertaining to the wedding, and the serving of the banquet that followed, was carried out in the most approved and appropriate manner.

The strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, executed by Miss Esther Shoemaker, announced the coming of the bridal party, who marched down the main aisle of the church to the altar, where they were met by the officiating minister, Rev. J. R. Carter, pastor of the church, where the bride and groom are faithful attendants. The beautiful ritual marriage service of the M. E. church was very impressively read by the minister, the responses being clearly made by the contracting parties. After the benediction hearty congratulations were extended to the happy couple, who were attended by Mrs. Mattie Boggess and Mr. James Malcolm.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding gown of white marquisette over white messaline, with a narrow banding of rose colored satin messaline around the bottom of the skirt, and the yoke of the waist was of the same color and material. A bandeua of oid-rose messaline made a becoming head dress. She carried a large bouquet of deep pink sweet peas and ferns, and also wore long white kid gloves.

The bridesmaid wore a white corduroy skirt with a white lace waist and brilliant hair ornaments.

The bridegroom and his best man wore the conventional black broadcloth.

After congratulations an elegant wedding luncheon was served in the chuch to the guests.

The bride's table, where were seated the bride and groom, the bridesmaid and best man and the officiating minister and his wife, was beautifully decorated. A bouquet of pink and pink and white carnations and ferns were placed in the center of the table over a centerpiece of hand-embroidery and lace, and pink and white hearts were also used in the decoration. The bride's caks was from the Reuillard cafe, and was a beautiful work in the confectioner's art, all in pink and white. Those serving were Mrs. Henrietta Andrews, Miss Savannah Smith of Kansas City, Miss Ethel Page, Miss Dora Fields, Mrs. John Redmond, Mrs. Henry Wilson and Miss Clara Page.

Several attractive gowns were worn by the guests. Mrs. Andrews wore a pale blue chiffon over messaline with trimmings of brown fur. Miss Savannah Smith wore an Alice blue chiffon trimmed with gold fringe over yellow messaline, heavily embroidered in gold beads an dtrimmed with black fur. Mrs. Henry Wilson wore a white embroidered lingerie, with a Madam Sherry cap of white net over pink silk. Misses Ethel Page and Dora Fields wore pretty white lingerie dresses; Mrs. John Redmond wore white net over blue silk messaline; Miss Alice Wright, Alice blue marquisette over pink silk; Mrs. Alfred Allen, tan voille with brown trimmings; Mrs. Mary Smith, Alice blue linen embroidered white roses; Mrs. J. R. Carter, suit of white serge; Miss Clara Page, all black hand-embroidered silk gown.

Mr. and Mrs. McGehee left on the 10:52 Wabash train for a few days' wedding trip to Des Moines, the bride wearing a traveling suit of blue serge. They were showered and showered with rice as they left the church, and the cab was adorned with pink and white hearts and white ribbons, so that their going was heralded all along the way to the depot. The bridegroom is the well known porter at the Linville hotel. His bride has been a faithful and efficient servant in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Leet for the past six years, and it is to them she owes the nice wedding celebration. She will continue her service in the Leet home after the honeymoon trip.

They received many gifts of cut glass, china and silver, which were tastefully arranged for the inspection of the guests on a table in the church. As the bride left the church she threw her bouquet, but unfortunately no one caught it, as it fell on the table where her gifts were.

The ceremony was witnessed by Mr and Mrs. H. F. Leet and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Leet, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Shoemaker, Miss Esther Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Gann, Misses Mary and Lillian Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bainum, Miss Maud Bainum, Mr. Will Phares, Mr. W. C. Pierce, Miss Babe Ford, Misses Lenore and Rose Schumacher, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Orear.

The other wedding guests were: Mrs. Harry Bolin, Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Martin, Mr. Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Carter, Rev. and and Mrs. Aaron Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John Gooden, Mr. and Mrs. John Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Will Palmer, Mr and Mrs. Henry Wilson, Mrs. Clara Page, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Page, Mr. and Mrs. John Redman, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Mattie Booggess, Mr. Charles Martin, Miss Isabel Palmer, Miss Dora Fields, Mr. James Malcome, Mr. and of aKnsas City, Mrs. Oda Johnson, Mr Mrs. B. Hardin, Miss Savannah Smith and Mrs. Matthew Kelley, Mr. Tom Jackson, Mr. Dan Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Bunk Gann, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen, Mrs. Tillman, Miss Stella Smith, Mrs. Henrietta Andrews, Mrs. Alf Dale, Mr. A. Keen, Miss Hazel Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Vance.

FRANCE INTO MEXICAN FUSS?

Orders Armored Cruiser Descartes to Vera Cruz.

ACT FOLLOWS NOTE TO POWERS

Foreign Intervention Recalls Threat to Massacre Americans—Official Washington Agitated Over New Phase of Situation.

Washington, Mar. 6.—Aroused by the admission by President Taft that the United States is not able to protect its own citizens or the citizens of other countries in Mexico, France announced that she is making ready to send the armored cruiser Descartes to Vera Cruz.

Action by France followed within three days after the state department had notified the ambassadors of Great Britaint, Germany and France and the minister of Spain that the president had advised all Americans to flee from Mexico.

Ends Monroe Doctrine?

Unless America changes her course without delay it was pointed out by diplomats in Washington that the action by France marks the beginning of the end of the Monroe doctrine as a force respected by the nations of the world.

In recognition of this appalling and humiliating fact leaders of the house announced that they will hold a conference and decide upon a course of action on this most delicate situation.

Spurred into activity by the revelation from Mexico and the action by France the senate committee on foreign relations will also hold a long and serious session at which the threat of European intervention will be vigorously discussed.

Fuel is added to the already fierce flame by the incendiary threat of Manuel Calero, Mexican minister of foreign affairs, that all Americans and other foreigners will be held as hostages the moment a pacifying force of foreign soldiers puts foot on the "sacred soil of Mexico."

As Tillman Sees It.

The subdued temper of official Washington was expressed by Senator Tillman when he said:

"The situation is one for the United States and Mexico alone. Should European nations attempt to intervene that fact will be cause for the immediate and vigorous assertion of the Monroe doctrine.

"Should a massacre of Americans threaten, I believe that the patriotism of President Taft will direct him to send and army into Mexico."

The alarm of the department of state was accentuated by the fact that search as it will, it is unable to find a single trace of the 50 American citizens including Eugene C. Blalock, a wealthy mine owner, who are missing at Azarco.

Great fear is felt this entire party who were last seen in a neighborhood infested with bandits and irresponsible insurrectionists, have been massacred.

The situation of complete anarchy that exists throughout Mexico is further illustrated by the alarming fact that thousands of Americans, taking the state department at its word, are fleeing, not only from the wildest country districts but from the cities of Mexico as well.

A general exodus of American women and children is in progress from Mexico City itself.

TAXICAB MURDERERS TO PRISON

Four Are Sentenced for Killing of Chicago Woman While on Her Way Home.

Chicago, Mar. 6.—Life imprisonment for George Rabanau and 25 years in the penitentiary for John Stacey and William H. Channel, found guilty of the murder last December of Mrs. Edmund Kaufman, was the verdict of the jury.

Fred Bensham, the fourth man charged with the crime, pleaded guilty before the trial and will be sentenced by the court.

All the defendants made more or less complete confessions of their share in the wild ride in a stolen motor car, which culminated in the attempts at robbery and the killing of Mrs. Kaufman, who was nearing her home with her husband when they were attacked.

CLAIRVOYANT GOT EASY MONEY

Salina Contractor Recovered His $600 and Fakir Was Captured While Boarding Train to Leave.

Salina, Kan., Mar. 6.—V. W. Alderson, a contractor of this city, at the suggestion of a clairvoyant put six $100 bills in an envelope and hung it around his neck, when he visited the fortune teller. After receiving a reading Alderson went home and found that the money was gone. The clairvoyant, who gave his name as Prof. Almo, was arrested while boarding a train a few minutes later. The money was recovered.

City Hall Bonds Won.

Lamonte, Mo., Mar. 6.—At a special election held here a proposition to issue bonds for $5,000 for building a city hall was carried by a vote of 126 to 24.

NO REASON FOR ARREST OF WOMEN

Lawrence, Mass., Police Head Admits Babies Also Were in Jail.

DIDN'T KNOW WHAT THE LAW WAS

Investigation by House Committee Brings Out Testimony of Cruelty and Arrests Without Apparent Authority.

Washington, Mar. 6.—C. F. Lynch, commissioner of public safety at Lawrence, Mass., who has charge of the police department there, told the house rules committee which is hearing testimony on conditions in the mill strike in that city, that he did not know by what authority of law women with babies in arms had been taken to the police station after the riot at the depot.

Max Bogaty of Philadelphia, a witness yesterday, recalled said he had seen babies, little boys and girls, in cells, locked up. Women arrested in the riot, he said, had been fined $1 for blocking the sidewalks.

Under questioning by Representative Stanley, Lynch said none of the parents of the children had appealed to him against their children being taken away, but he understood from one of the police captains that all of the children did not have permission to leave.

Mothers and Babes Held.

"Did you see in the jail, after the struggle at the depot, women and children and women with babies in arms?" Representative Stanley asked.

"Yes, I saw them there, but they were not in jail."

"How were they restrained? Weren't they free to go if they wanted to?"

"They were brought there to be held until their cases had been disposed of."

"They were brought there by the police then, and did you ask any of these mothers whether they were incarcerated because they had tried to keep their children from being kidnaped or because they tried to send them away?"

"No, I did not."

"By what warrant were those mothers and children there?"

"I didn't know what the law was on that subject."

Didn't Know They Were Mothers.

"Well, then, just why were they arrested?"

"I don't think they were, and I didn't know at the station whether they were mothers or not."

Josephine Liss, a striker, testified that when she went out for a walk a soldier stopped her with a bayonet and swore at her. Then she struck him with her muff and was arrested for assault, locked up and fined $10. She testified she had seen a woman struck on the head by a policeman with a club, and had seen men beaten until their heads were covered with blood.

CROWDS VISIT GOOD ROADS TRAIN

Four Day Tour Through Southern Kansas Arouses Much Interest Among Farmers.

Council Grove, Kan., Mar. 6.—Through a snowbound country, the agricultural college M. K. & T. drainage and good roads special train started on a four-day tour of southern Kansas. The train left Junction City at 9 o'clock. At the first stop, White City, a little town of 700, 75 farmers had driven through the snow filled roads to meet the train. Parkerville, a smaller town, gave even a larger crowd.

In charge of the train is J. H. Miller, director of college extension at the agricultural college. Speakers from the agricultural college are W. S. Gearhart, state highway engineer; H. B. Walker, drainage engineer, and A. R. Losch, assistant highway engineer.

At a meeting in a hall at Burlington Mr. Gearhart gave his bridge and roads talk, illustrated. The special spent the night at Burlington.

SENT HIS BOOK INTO MISSOURI

This Proved the Undoing of Otoman Zar-Adusht Hanish, High Priest of the Sun Cult.

Chicago, Ill., Mar. 6.—Otoman Zar-Adusht Hanish, high priest of the sun cult, was arrested by federal officers following a raid on his temple here. He was found hiding in the coal bin. He spent the night in the county jail after failing to furnish bonds of $25,000. The charge against him is the sending of objectionable reading matter by express. It is punishable by a heavy fine and a penitentiary term.

The federal authorities have tried hard to catch Hanish sending his book through the mails, but he never used them. Finally he stumbled recently and sent a copy to a government operative stationed temporarily at Brookfield, Mo. The book was sent by express.

H. L. Swift's Widow Dead.

Chicago, Mar. 6.—Mrs. Herbert L. Swift, wife of the millionaire lumberman, whose death was the subject of a coroner's investigation, died at the Congress hotel after a brief illness. Pleurisy was given as the cause.

MISSING DOCTOR FOUND IN FIELD

Eating Corn From Shock and Wholly Without Shelter.

WANDERED FOUR DAYS IN SNOW

At First Refused to Admit His Identity or Recognize Friends—Family Believe Health and Strength Will Return.

Trenton, Mo., Mar. 6.—The mysterious disappearance of Dr. G. W. Belshe ended when he was found in the middle of a cornfield eating grain out of a shock. Wandering four days in the snow without adequate food and shelter has weakened his mind, if it was not already tottering when he deserted his buggy on the way to a patient last Friday night.

"Hello, where are we?" was his greeting to his uncle, Claude Belshe, and Sheriff Dillon as they approached him in a field six miles north of here.

He hid the ear of corn among the stocks, but munched on hungrily. For several hours he refused to admit his identity or to recognize his friends.

Hands and Feet Swollen.

From his first incoherent utterances he is becoming more composed in mind each hour. Dr. J. F. Fair and his family believe he will be restored to strength. The long night rides which were his custom in the service of others had given him great endurance. His hands and feet are swollen from the cold.

But the incidents leading up to his disappearance probably will remain a mystery. In the little conversation that he could carry on in a rational manner, Dr. Belshe said he knew almost nothing of what happened during his long exposure, but that he remembered getting a drink and being very hungry.

Only once did a member of the family inquire the reason for his running away. He looked at his wife.

"Tell them the truth," he muttered.

Mrs. Belshe, who has been on the verge of nervous collapse, has been strengthened by his return. She feared that he had been murdered or kidnaped on the way to his country patient. The inquest at which he was to have been an important witness will be postponed until his recovery.

Discovered by Farmer.

The morning after his disappearance was one of the severest snowstorms of the winter.

Marion Legg, a farmer, saw Belshe approach his barn, go to the well and get a drink. Believing him a tramp or a sneakthief, Legg sent him away. Early in the morning he found him near a haystack in his field and as he fled before him Legg noticed that he seemed to be weak and walked peculiarly. He telephoned Sheriff Dillon, who notified Claude Belshe. The latter with others jumped in a buggy and rushed to the farm. With a searching party made up of neighbors, they soon tracked the wanderer from the haystack to the cornfield.

WEDDING ENDS IN DAMAGE SUIT

Baptist Preacher Sued by Father of Eloping Girl for Performing Ceremony.

Montgomery, Mo., Mar. 6.—A novel suit has been filed in the circuit court here, in which Benjamin Windsor, a farmer, sues Samuel Palmer, a young Baptist preacher of this county, for $2,000 damages for performing a wedding ceremony in which his daughter, Frances Windsor, 15 years old, was married to William Boone, 19.

The father alleges that Mr. Palmer knew that his daughter was under age, that the marriage ceremony was against his wishes and that the preacher wilfully and maliciously performed the ceremony.

Rev. Palmer asserts that the young bride and her husband came to his home and brought what he believed a legal and duly authorized license to wed, issued at Jefferson City by the recorder. The girl told him she was "over 18."

To Build Concrete Houses.

Gary, Ind., Mar. 6.—Work will be started within a short time on 100 more houses for the American Sheet and Tin Plate company. Since the operation of the plant fully 2,000 men have been employed and have already occupied the first 100 houses. These houses are built by the poured cement method and are of the Edison type.

Cleared a Road for a Funeral.

St. Joseph, Mar. 6.—Neighbors of J. M. Holt, a farmer five miles east of Quitman, Mo., cleared a road from Holt's home to Quitman, that the body of Mrs. Holt may be taken there for burial. She became ill February 25 and on account of the deep snow a physician could not reach the house until three days later.

Five of a Family Burned.

Beaver, Pa., Mar. 6.—Five persons were burned to death when a boarding house at Koppel, near here, was destroyed by fire. The dead include the landlord, his wife and their three children. Two other children were saved by boarders who threw them from the second story into the arms of persons in the street.

LADY DECIES.

HARD LABOR FOR SUFFRAGISTS

LONDON MAGISTRATES ADD TO USUAL PRISON SENTENCE.

Attacks on Private Property Causes Public Sentiment to Turn Against Women.

London, Mar. 6.—For the first time the public became fully aroused over the malicious destruction of property by suffragettes. After the conviction of several of the leaders in the recent riots, crowds followed the prisoners back to the jail crying, "Horsewhip them!"

The magistrate had 150 cases against the suffragettes to deal with, 87 of them arising from the serious riots of last Friday, when the accused caused damage of $25,000, and the others in connection with the later disturbance.

Alice Wright, described as an American residing in Paris, was sentenced by the magistrate sitting at the West London police court to two months' imprisonment at hard labor on a charge of window smashing.

All the other women who engaged in the raid in the West End of London received similar sentences.

The addition of hard labor to the term of imprisonment is a departure on the part of the magistrates and has caused dismay among the women.

Since the women suffragettes have begun reckless campaign public sentiment has begun to turn strongly against them. In addition to more severe prison sentence shop owners and others have undertaken a campaign in opposition to universal suffrage. The anti-suffragettes declare that the women have ruined their cause by their actions in the past week.

MORE LIBERTY FOR METHODISTS

Movement Inaugurated to Remove the Ban of the Church From Theaters.

Cincinnati, Mar. 6.—A movement to remove the ban of the Methodist Episcopal general conference from theater-going was inaugurated by the Rev. W. E. Martin at a meeting of the Methodist Ministers' association here and received the indorsement of a majority of those present. The present attitude of the Methodist church, embodied in the discipline, which says that for the third offense of theater-going the offender should be put on ecclesiastical trial, was declared not only unjust and foolish, but laughable, said Mr. Martin. When he had finished some of the best known ministers heartily commended his stand and urged that the paper be sent to the amusement committee of the general conference to be held at Minneapolis in May.

LANDSLIDE ENDANGERED TRAINS

Track Foreman Discovered Accident Just in Time to Save Rock Island Passengers.

St. Albans, Mo., Mar. 6.—Walter Bodaw, track foreman here of the Rock Island railroad, by quick action, saved night trains on that road from being wrecked at St. Albans. Bodaw, about 5 o'clock, discovered that a great mass of stone and dirt had fallen on the tracks from the bluffs on either side. There was no telephone near and trains from Kansas City and the West would be due shortly.

Bodaw rode three miles on a hand car to reach a telephone and warned agents to stop the trains. They were halted at a safe distance. Section hands were put to work clearing the track, but the debris was not cleared away until early morning.

Sunday Acting Not Labor.

Galena, Kan., Mar. 6.—Sunday acting is not a violation of the Sunday labor law, according to a decision of Judge E. E. Sapp in the case against Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hutchinson, who were arrested for giving a show in Scammon February 11. The defendants were discharged.

A HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR

A Little Sage and Sulphur Makes Gray Hair Vanish—A Remedy for All Hair Troubles.

Who does not know the value of Sage and Sulphur for keeping the hair dark soft and glossy and in good condition. As a matter of fact, Sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than Sage and Sulphur, if properly prepared.

The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put out an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for keeping the hair and scalp in clean, healthy condition.

If your hair is losing its color or constantly coming out, or if you are troubled with dandruff or dry, itchy scalp, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, use it according to the simple directions, and see what a difference a few days' treatment will make in the appearance of your hair.

All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.
